Lebanon in Connecticut, Nov. 16. [~~1845~~ 1745]

This Day was decently interred the Body of the Rev. Mr. John Robinson, who after about a Fortnight's Illness of the Diabetes, deceased on the 14th ~~[illegible]~~ Instant, Æt. 74. — He was born in Dorchester, & educated in Harvard-College in Cambridge; at his first setting out in the Evangelical Ministry he was sent to preach the Gospel at ~~Newcastle~~ Newcastle in Pennsylvania; from whence after some time, he returned to his Native Country, and in the year 1700 was ordained to the Pastoral Office over the Church of Christ in Duxbury; where he continued till the year 1739, when by reason of bodily Weakness, and some Difficulties arising on Account of a civil Contract between him & his People, he was dismissed from his Pastoral Relation to them, by a Council of the Neighbouring Churches, with a fair Recommendation:— After which he removed with the Remainder of his Family to Lebanon, where he had several of his children comfortably & creditably settled; among whom he spent the Remainder of his days. He was a learned & sound Divine; laborious & faithful in his Master's Vineyard: In civil life he was just, generous, of a cheerful & pleasant Disposition, & a faithful Friend. His Funeral Sermon was preached by the Rev. Mr. Solomon Williams of Lebanon, from Gen. 47, 9.
